GREENSBORO MAY HAVE A PARK.

FISHER PROPERTY BEING OPENED UP

Work of Clearing Now Going on and Building Lots Will Soon be for Sale.—A Fifteen-acre Public Park for the Use of the City a Part of the Plan Contemplated. Plans Being Drawn for the Approval of Mr. Fisher, Which It is Thought He Will Readily Agree to.

A public park conveniently located is one of the desirable things that every town should have. In the Guilford Battle Ground Park a part of the needs of Greensboro are supplied, it being situated near enough for parties to drive and enjoy short outings, but too far, without a car line, for the everyday needs of pedestrians seeking recreation, children seeking playgrounds, or nurses incidentally seeking fresh air for their charges and purposely places to fill engagements with their friends. It may be that Greensboro is to have a place in the city where all these conditions are to be fulfilled. Plans are on foot towards that end.

The tract of land known as the Fisher property lying in the northern part of town, extending from Schenck and Smith streets to the Finishing mill property, and from Keogh street to the Southern railway, and beyond the railway north of the Judge Dick place, is being cleared up preparatory to being cut up into building sites. Part of this property has for some time been used as a dumping ground for the refuse of the town, and as soon as the underbrush is sufficiently cleared away to permit, this will all be carted away, streets opened and graded, and the grounds put in first class condition. The tract contains 105 acres and will be divided into 350 lots. The natural drainage is excellent and its location makes it desirable property.

Mr. E. P. Wharton is in possession of a signed contract between himself and Capt. B. J. Fisher looking to the further development of this property. It is Mr. Wharton's intention to make a public park of about fifteen acres that will be a credit to Greensboro, and in furtherance of this idea plans are now being drawn which will be submitted to Mr. Fisher for his approval. There is no doubt, Mr. Wharton thinks, but that Mr. Fisher will give his hearty co-operation to this part of the plan. Such a park as the proposed one, in an easily accessible part of the city, lighted by electric lights, and with other improvements, will go far towards increasing the attractiveness of Greensboro, already one of the foremost towns in the State.

DAMAGE FROM A CLOUDBURST.

Section of Country This Side of Wilkesboro Visited by a Destructive Storm.

A cloudburst in the section of country this side of Wilkesboro yesterday afternoon did considerable damage. The rain fell in torrents, flooding the lands and watercourses. A gentleman who came down from Wilkesboro tells The Telegram that Roaring river was just what its name indicates—a roaring, rushing, seething stream of turbulent water.

Numbers of houses and bridges were carried away and much other damage done. The water was within a few inches of the railroad bridge across Roaring river.

The people were greatly alarmed, for such a storm had never before been witnessed, not even by the "oldest inhabitant."

Greensboro Headquarters for the Heptasophs.

Mr. J. H. Primrose, a special organizer of the Improved Order of Heptasophs, arrived last night and will locate in Greensboro. He will revive the order here and extend it throughout the State, with this city as headquarters.

A Farmer Killed.

Information has been received here of a sad occurrence near Ramseur Monday. Late in the evening Mr. John Fields, a well known farmer, was returning from the field with a load of farm products, when he was instantly killed by the overturning of his wagon.

TRAVELED WITH BRYAN.

A Republican on the Train With the Democratic Leader in West Virginia.

A traveling man in the city today, a representative of a large implement manufacturing concern, tells The Telegram that he was on the train with William J. Bryan during a portion of the Democratic leader's tour through West Virginia Monday. Mr. Bryan and his party occupied a special car and the remainder of the train was filled with enthusiastic admirers.

The traveling man says Mr. Bryan's trip through the State was one continuous ovation. At every station people gathered by the thousand and clamored for a speech. Where appointments had been made for short speeches there were immense crowds, ranging from 10,000 to 25,000 people. The gentleman added that it was conceded that no man had ever so stirred the people of West Virginia as did Mr. Bryan. The crowds that turned out to see and hear him were larger than ever greeted any person in that State.

The gentleman with whom The Telegram had the conversation is a Republican and has felt confident of McKinley's re-election, but, since seeing and hearing Bryan, he has become quite uneasy.

FALSE PRETENSE.

A Stranger Boldly Obtains Money from Will H. Matthews & Co.

In a very simple way a young man boldly obtained $7 from Will H. Matthews & Co. just before the close of business yesterday evening. Going into the store, the young fellow, who was a stranger, asked Mr. Matthews to cash two or three small checks, amounting in the aggregate to $13. He was directed to the cashier's desk, where he could be accommodated.

Walking up to the cashier, a young boy, he said: "Mr. Matthews says give me $18 for these checks." Without looking at the checks, the cashier gave him the money, when the stranger went out.

Soon afterward the stranger's deception was discovered, when Mr. Matthews obtained a warrant for his arrest. Learning that an officer was after him, the young man returned the money to Mr. Matthews, when the warrant was withdrawn.

After narrowly escaping arrest and imprisonment, the stranger left the city on one of the night trains.

Carr Men Preparing for a Big Meeting.

The call for a meeting in the court house tomorrow night in the interest of Gen. Carr's Senatorial candidacy has met with a hearty response from many of that gentleman's friends, who are determined that nothing which will promote their favorite's interests shall be left undone.

The indications are that a large crowd will attend the meeting. Arrangements have been made to have some excellent speakers present.

The "Two Orphans" Last Night.

A very good audience witnessed the Palmer Stock Company's presentation of "Two Orphans," at the Academy of Music last night. As on the previous night, the show was very good. The characters were all well taken. The specialties were very enjoyable.

Tonight "A Celebrated Case" will be put on the boards. This is said to be one of the best plays handled by the company.

Missed It on Sherman and Colfax.

Philadelphia Record.

Mr. Sherman's first introduction to politics was when he went to the Philadelphia convention as a delegate and helped to nominate General Zachary Taylor for President. He was one of the secretaries, and Schuyler Colfax was another. The story is told that in convention, a member of the Ohio delegation arose and said: "Mr. Chairman, there is a young man with us who has never held office and who has no prospect of ever holding any if this convention doesn't give him one. I nominate him for an assistant secretary; his name is John Sherman." Immediately a member of the Indiana delegation arose and said: "Mr. Chairman, we have a young man in the same fix. He is Schuyler Colfax." And then these two young men walked to the platform together—then unknown.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Washington, Oct. 24.—The funeral of the late John Sherman began at his house in this city at one o'clock today. The Rev. Mackay Smith officiated. A majority of the diplomats in the city attended, also the military order of the Loyal Legion, representatives from the State and Treasury Departments, officers of the army and navy and many others. After the services are concluded at the house the remains will be escorted to the railroad station by the Fifth Cavalry, commanded by General Rafferty.

The train bearing the body will be made a special to Canton, where the car of President McKinley will be attached, thence for Mansfield, the old home of the dead statesman, where the remains will find their last resting place.

BIG BETTING BLUFFS.

Campaign Boodle Being Made to Do Service in This Line in Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Oct. 21.—Fortunes have been posted in the Callahan and McCoy poolrooms for several weeks to back the opinions of the men owning them that McKinley will be endorsed by a reelection, and from present appearances they will remain there until the votes are counted next month.

Mr. McCoy said last night that he had a few thousand dollars which he would wager as follows:

Five thousand dollars that McKinley will carry Wisconsin by 75,000.

Five thousand dollars that Cook county, Ill., will cast more votes for McKinley than it will for Bryan.

Five thousand dollars that New York will give McKinley a plurality of 80,000.

Five thousand dollars that Minnesota will give McKinley a plurality of 30,000.

Five thousand dollars that Ohio will give McKinley a plurality of 45,000.

Five thousand dollars that Indiana will give McKinley a plurality of 20,000.

Five thousand dollars that Illinois will give McKinley a plurality of 75,000.

Five thousand dollars that Maryland will give McKinley a plurality of 8,000.

Five thousand dollars that McKinley will have 100 more electoral votes than Bryan.

Five thousand dollars that the next House of Congress will be Republican.

Five thousand dollars that all of the Republican candidates for Congress in Wisconsin will be elected.

Dr. Curry at the State Normal and Industrial College.

Dr. J. L. M. Curry, of Washington, D. C., the general agent of the Peabody fund, today paid his annual visit to the State Normal and Industrial College, which is a beneficiary of the fund.

These visits are always enjoyable occasions, especially to Dr. Curry, who has watched with great interest the wonderful growth and development of the institution. This morning he made a speech in the chapel to the faculty and students.

London, Oct. 24.—A Madrid despatch says the French steamer Fairherbe was sunk yesterday in collision with the French steamer Mitidja, which was seriously damaged, but which reached Alicante. The Mitidja rescued eight of the crew of the Fairherbe, but four others were drowned.

Canada to Make its Own Money.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Montreal, Oct. 24.—Mr. Fielding, minister of finance, has announced that Canada will soon have its own mint. He says, "we have obtained the consent of the home government and will go ahead. We can make not only our own coin without limit, but the English sovereigns, which will be current throughout the world."

Civilian Killed by a Sentry.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Sandy Hook, Oct. 24.—John Sorrenson, a civilian, in the employ of the ordnance department at the Sandy Hook proving station, was shot and killed by a sentry stationed on the beach to prevent the escape of a military prisoner who had got out of the guardhouse.

No Trace of Alverd.

By Wire to The Telegram.

New York, Oct. 24.—No trace can be found of Alverd, the defaulting note teller of the First National Bank. The police believe he had accomplices. Search for Alverd will be the most extensive ever known. The bank officials will spend as much as he stole to catch him.

Recruits for the Army.

The Greensboro recruiting station today sent off the following new soldiers:

Everett Scales, of Ararat, Va., to Fort Brady, Mich., to join Co. A of the Fourteenth Infantry; Leo Smith, of Greensboro, and Charles L. Euliss, of Graham, to Fort Wood, N. Y., to join an infantry regiment soon to sail for the Philippines.

Important Meeting of the Heptasophs.

An important meeting of the Heptasophs of Greensboro will be held in the reading room of the Southern Loan and Trust Company building tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. As the life of the order at this place may depend upon the meeting, it is urged that every member be present.

A Special Train to the State Fair.

The Southern Railway will run a special train to Raleigh tomorrow for the accommodation of visitors to the State fair. The train will leave Greensboro at 7 o'clock in the morning. On the return it will leave Raleigh at 5:30 p. m. The fare for the round trip is $3.50, which includes one admission into the fair grounds.

LAW-BREAKERS OPPOSE HIM.

BRYAN EXPLAINS THEIR OPPOSITION

Says it is Because They Know He Would Enforce the Law Against Them All Without Discrimination—Charges the Republicans With Crimes.

Frederick, Md., Oct. 23.—"You will hear people say that I, if elected, will not enforce the law. That is not the danger. They know that if I am elected I will put the same kind of striped clothes on a big thief that are put on a little one."

This declaration was made by Mr. Bryan in his speech in this city today. He had arrived here at 12 o'clock, an hour later than the time set for the beginning of his meeting. He came in on a special train from Washington, which brought a number of people from the capital city, and he found a very large crowd of people awaiting him at this point. Here he encountered a rain-storm and the rain fell constantly during his meeting. It was not a heavy downpour, but sufficient to wet people to the skin who remained in it. Nevertheless a large majority of the crowd held on to the end and most of them showed their appreciation by frequent and loud applause.

Mr. Bryan was introduced by Col. L. Victor Baughman, whose home is at this place, and Col. Baughman, as well as Mr. Bryan, was most cordially greeted. Mr. Bryan was well along in his speech when he made the declaration above quoted, and this was followed by an additional statement running thus: "And that is the reason why all the law-breakers are against us in the campaign." Introducing his speech, Mr. Bryan said:

"The Democratic party is not a sectional party. If you build a government upon the Declaration of Independence and administer it according to the ideas of Jefferson, it is as broad and as long as the nation. If we were seeking some class legislation, which would give to the few an advantage over the many, we would be a sectional party, because we would only appeal to those specially benefited by the legislation promised, but we are not trying to get your hands into somebody else's pockets. We are trying to keep other people's hands out of your pockets and when a party seeks nothing but justice and promises nothing but equal rights, you can appeal to all people everywhere who are seeking to make government a blessing to all, and not merely an advantage to the few. Partiality in government, favoritism in government, these have been curses of government in the past and today the greatest fault that can be found with this or any other government is that instead of being administered as a government of the people, for the people and by the people it is administered in the interest of a few who grow rich by using the instrumentalities of government against the great majority. I charge against the Republican party today that in all its policies it is ignoring the producer of wealth and disregarding the rights of the plain people in its efforts to give some great opportunity to exploit the rest."

During his speech, some one in the crowd, evidently not well informed, asked him why he had signed the Paris peace treaty.

"I did not sign it," replied Mr. Bryan. "I was not President and there would have been no such treaty signed if I had been President." He then took occasion to explain his participation in the matter of ratification of the treaty and said he had no apologies to make for it. Continuing his address, Mr. Bryan said: "In this town there is a monument reared to the man who wrote the 'Star-Spangled Banner.' Do you know that when you vote for a colonial policy you vote to destroy that as the national hymn? A Filipino cannot sing the 'Star-Spangled Banner.'"

In Behalf of the Auditor's Chances of Reform Did We Ask It.

Concord Tribune.

The valued Greensboro Telegram wants the State Auditor's imprisonment deferred until the reformatory is built. We have no objection. What we want is the reformatory and if The Telegram and every newspaper in the State will join hands in a fight along this line we may get this much needed institution.

AUGUST DEMOCRATS STICK.

NONE HAVE FLUNKED SAYS E. W. POU

Also Says the Republicans are Debauching Their Officers in an Attempt to Discredit Democrats—The Yancey Display of Apples Great—Pou and Giles to Make Joint Discussion.

Special Correspondence of The Telegram.

Raleigh, Oct. 24.—The shotgun contests at the State fair began today and ends tomorrow. Ed P. McKisick, who is in charge, is here.

The Greensboro-made carpets make a find and much noticed show at the fair.

The poultry show is now complete and is up the best standard here.

The display of apples from Yancey county is a revelation. There is a peach by the same exhibitor, known as "Gardiner's October," which in size, flavor and beauty is simply peerless. Zach. W. Long, of Rockingham, is a voluntary bankrupt; liabilities $15,000, assets 0.

The agricultural board yesterday heard Mr. Porter, of western North Carolina, who is the North Carolina representative of the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo. He urged that the board make a specially fine exhibit for this State. It is pretty safe to say it will be made.

E. W. Pou agrees to divide time with J. A. Giles, Republican nominee for Congress in this district.

The Supreme Court yesterday called the docket of the fifth district. Many attorneys are present, these being as follows: T. T. Hicks, Henderson; C. A. Cash, Ben. G. Green, Warrenton; J. W. Hayes, A. A. Hicks, A. W. Graham, Oxford; Charles M. Stedman, J. T. Morehead, R. R. King, A. L. Brooks, Greensboro; F. L. Fuller, J. S. Manning, J. Crawford Biggs, Paul C. Graham, Durham; F. I. Osborne, Charlotte.

Rex hospital here has done a great work this year. It has had 194 white and 92 colored patients since 1900 began. Of these 72 were from places outside of Raleigh. Typhoid fever has been widespread this year and everywhere of a severe type. The hospital has had many cases from various points, here and elsewhere. Its success in the treatment has been excellent for several years. This year the proportion of deaths was larger than usual. The hospital is in part what was the residence of the late Governor Manly. A specially built hospital is greatly needed. Perhaps in the years to come some one of the many wealthy people here will give it a building, following the noble example of Mr. George Watts, of Durham.

E. W. Pou, Democratic nominee for Congress in this district, says that at the 25 places at which he has spoken in his canvass he has not seen of heard of a man who voted the Democratic ticket in August who will not vote it again in November. He says all the arrests of election officers made by the Republicans in Johnson county are for political effect; that the whole Republican effort there is debauching their officers in their efforts to cast aspersions upon Democrats.

Mr. Frank P. Haywood, Sr., one of Raleigh's oldest citizens died today, aged 90. He was born here.

ESCAPED BURIAL ALIVE.

Undertaker Found Mrs. Strike's Body Warm After She Had Been on the Cooling Board All Night.

Skippensburg, Pa., Special. This morning Mrs. Strike, wife of John Strike, residing on Garfield street in this city, and who it was supposed had died last evening, returned to life. Mrs. Strike, who has been an invalid for a number of years, but was able to walk around until Saturday, became seriously ill and last evening her physician supposed she was dying when he left her bedside.

Some time later she seemingly passed away, and Undertaker J. Beatty Barbour was summoned. Upon examining the body Mr. Barbour thought he detected a twitch about the eyes and other indications of life, and therefore decided not to embalm the body until this morning, but had it prepared and laid on the cooling board. This morning, in company with his assistant, he went to the house for the purpose of embalming the body, and to his surprise found it warm under the arms.

He immediately summoned the physician, who found a slight pulse and by the aid of a mirror discovered that she was breathing lightly. She was immediately placed in bed and warm bottles of water and other restoratives administered, and while she still remains in a state of coma, it is stated by her attendants this evening that she has opened her eyes slightly. The disease from which she had been suffering is acute nephritis.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been too low and are just now getting reasonable. BANK TELLER'S BIG SCOOP.

WALL STREET FIRM LOSES $700,000

A Teller Who for Twenty Years Was a Trusted Man Has Disappeared With that Amount of the First National Bank's Funds.

New York, Oct. 23.—C. L. Alvord, note teller of the First National Bank, is a defaulter to the amount of $700,000. Alvord has not yet been apprehended. He had been an employee of the bank for over twenty years. The First National is one of the largest banking institutions in the city, and its president is George F. Barker, who is also president of the Astor National Bank and a financial adviser of the Astor family. The bank is located at No. 2 Wall street, and has a capital of $5,000,000. The bank gave out the following statement late today:

"The note teller, who has been in the employ of the First National Bank for many years is a defaulter to a large amount. His operations have continued for a considerable period, and have been skilfully concealed through a manipulation of his balance book. The discovery was made by one of the bank's employees a few days after the completion of an examination of the bank by the United States examiners. During the continuance of his peculations periodical examinations have been made by several district corps of examiners representing the Comptroller's Department, all expert accountants; and the bank has also had frequent independent examinations; neither of which has developed any irregularity. The aggregate of the false entries, amounting to $700,000, has been charged off on the books of the bank out of the reserve fund, without diminishing the surplus and profits of the bank, as reported in its last published statement. It is expected that the shortage will be materially reduced by a substantial sum, of which there is fair prospect of recovery."

Alvord was capable and experienced, and the discovery of his defalcations made after he was gone, was a complete surprise to everybody. The loss of money is hardly disturbing the bank, which is one of the strongest in the city. Alvord is about 50 years old and has a wife and three children. His home was Mount Vernon and he was respected there as well as in the street. His habits were good. It is believed that he lost money in stock speculations, and that some of the money can be recovered. He disappeared about a week or ten days ago. The crime has been known long enough to the officers of the bank for them to say with some assurance that Alvord did not work alone. No one else is under suspicion.

RHEUMATISM—CATARRH—DIS EASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air, blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure and so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1900.

NOT AFRAID OF SILVER.

In a sermon in a Greensboro pulpit recently a minister said that there is a growing suspicion among the people that there is no hell after all. It does seem that if people believed in its reality as firmly as the minister did who was talking, there would be a greater effort made to avoid the possibility of a sojourn there. But this effort not being made, the minister was warranted in his statement that people do not believe the doctrine now as it was once believed. This however, is by way of illustration of the country's attitude towards silver. Referring to the argument, which the Republicans are working so industriously, that Mr. Bryan's election would mean free silver legislation and consequent disaster, the Washington Post remarks: Bryan's election would not even threaten such legislation. A Democratic House would not be a free silver House. The Senate would be a gold standard body. And any tampering with the currency would give the Republicans an easy and overwhelming victory in the Congressional elections of 1902.

If the country had not been thoroughly convinced that a Bryan victory could not possibly produce the calamitous results described by the Globe-Democrat, we should have been in the throes of a panicky scare months ago. The solid sense of the people has neutralized the malignant folly of organs and politicians.

The Post's assertion that Mr. Bryan's election would not possibly bring about silver legislation is without doubt correct. Even a Democratic House, might and no doubt would be, far from a silver House, and as the Post says, there is the Senate. The simple truth is that there is no fear of silver, but that it is to the advantage of the Republican campaign to work up such a fear if possible that it may defeat Mr. Bryan as it did in 1896. It is not the fear of silver that is troubling the interests behind the Republicans in this campaign, and the Post's assertion that if the country feared it "we should have been in the throes of a panicky scare months ago," is true. The Republicans are unable to frighten the people with this silver scare as the Democrats are unable to frighten them with the imperialism scare. It is like the preacher's idea of the people's belief in the doctrine of eternal punishment. If the country really feared silver legislation the evidence of that fear would be unmistakable.

But has "the stolid sense of the people" yet fully gotten to the point that it can neutralize "the malignant folly of organs and politicians?"

The object of the flight of Kruger from Africa to Europe, so far as we know, is not understood. Some persons take the view that he is going for the purpose of yet seeking aid for the Boer cause, while others hold, like the Newberne Journal expresses it, that "it is the old story of the preservation of the leaders at the expense of the followers." We can hardly believe that the old man is simply deserting his people with the idea of escaping whatever falls upon them.

The News, our afternoon contemporary, of Charlotte, has grown into a full size six column, eight page paper. The News is a live paper and has been making many improvements of late.

A special from Charlotte to the Asheville Gazette says:

After attending the conference of the Republican leaders at Greensboro today, ex-State Chairman Holton stated that they expected McKinley to carry North Carolina.

We note this expression of our District Attorney with great interest. It indicates that he is trying to get out of the slough of despondency in which he has been since the August election. It shows that he is so anxious to get out that he grabs frantically at straws. We commend his brave attempt to once more become cheerful. Any man who is thirsting after cheerfulness so much that he can extract some of that article out of the chance that McKinley has to carry North Carolina deserves to be encouraged. Mr. Macawber was a car load of blues beside him.

Our Raleigh correspondent speaks of the fine work done by Rex hospital of that place. What has become of the efforts towards having a hospital in Greensboro? This is a matter that our people should take hold of. The matter should not be allowed to drop. Raleigh, Durham, Charlotte, Wilmington, and doubtless other towns of the State have them.

The cheerless dodo that does the editorial chirping for the Salisbury Truth-Index continues to drone its monotone of disapproval of The Telegram. The dodo is chronically weary, and if this song affords it any relief, why certainly its often rendition will cause us to lose no sleep.

ESCAPE OF A CRAZY MOB.

Inmates of an Insane Asylum Assault Attendants and Make a Mad Rush for Liberty.

Poukeepsie Dispatch 21st.

There was a revolt at the Matewan State Hospital for the criminal insane at half-past six o'clock tonight, when six or eight keepers were assaulted and overpowered by about twenty insane patients. Some of the patients escaped, and seven are still at large. One or two of the keepers are badly bruised as a result of the assault.

After the patients had been given their usual Sunday night supper they were taken back to their apartments in company with keepers. Among the number were fifteen or twenty who slept in one of the large corridors, this being necessary on account of the cramped conditions at the institution. In this hall with the patients were six or eight keepers. There were no suspicious movements on the part of the patients to indicate that they had been planning a revolt of any kind. Suddenly, and without warning, each keeper was attacked simultaneously by two or three patients, and heavy blows fell on the heads of the surprised attendants. The keys were soon taken from the keepers, and a rush was then made for the door leading from the hall into the dining-room.

The keys were well known to them, and the rear door was unlocked without much loss of time. With a wild yell the insane mob rushed out of the narrow door to the gate in the wall, which was quickly unlocked and the fugitives ran across the hospital farm back of the main building. A hot pursuit followed, and all but seven of the patients were captured. The revolt, it is thought, was caused directly by the cramped quarters at the hospital.

The Original Annie Laurie.

Wilmington Messenger.
All have heard of the beautiful song of "Annie Laurie." She was a German woman born in Scotland in 1862, and the daughter of Sir Robert Laurie. The rejected lover, young Douglass, wrote it, and Lady Scott Spottswode, who died this year, gave the modern version of the song.

More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Effect in Wilmington of Waddell's Withdrawal.

Speculation, after the withdrawal of Col. Waddell, at once became rife as to how New Hanover county will vote in the primary. Both Mr. Simmons and Gen. Carr have supporters here, but the odds at the present appear in favor of Mr. Simmons. Since before Col. Waddell withdrew there was not the proverbial "two to make a quarrel" on account of the practical unanimity of opinion, it may now be expected that the campaign will "warm up" and Wilmington will have a taste of the Senatorial campaign as it has been waged in other sections of the State for the past several months.

Since the withdrawal of Col. Waddell the talk here is nearly all for Hon. F. M. Simmons, and there is no reason to doubt that he will carry New Hanover by a large majority.

IMPORTANT!

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 26th, 1900.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

On and after October 15th, 1900, we, the undersigned, will do a strictly cash business. Our reasons are as follows:

1st. Absolute NECESSITY.
2nd. Laundry, the world over, is a recognized cash business and justly so.
3rd. Our accounts are necessarily small, and it causes an endless amount of confusion and expense to collect, besides losses each year in bad bills.

4th. All of our current expenses, such as labor, fuel, gas and supplies are cash, hence the stand we take is forced upon us. While we very much regret, in most cases, to exact the spot cash, yet we must treat all alike, and we see no other way out of the difficulty. We trust our customers will lend us their aid by stating when to return laundry and by being prepared to pay for same when delivered. Our drivers will have positive instructions to return to the laundry all packages not paid for.

We have on sale at office (for cash) coupon books from $1 to $5 which can be left at convenient place at home, so that on delivery of bundle the amount of laundry bill can be torn out by the driver.

DEACONESS GARDINER AT WORK.

She Turns in a Charge Against Policemen That They Allowed a Man to Drag a Woman Into a Saloon.

New York Sun.

The following bulletin was issued at police headquarters at 9:30 o'clock last night:

"Deaconess Gardiner of Grace Church telephones that a policeman standing on the southeast corner of Fourth avenue and Eleventh street saw a man drag a young woman into a saloon, although the woman was struggling, and that the policeman himself took a glass of beer from the bartender on the stoop and did not interfere."

There were two policemen of the Fifth street station whose beats took them to Fourth avenue and Eleventh street. One was policeman Sauder, who declared that at 11 o'clock he had not been near the corner. The other Policeman O'Feill, whose beat is on Eleventh street. He was frank about having taken a drink.

"Of course I took a drink on the stoop," he declared. "It was only ginger ale, however, and I paid for it. I saw no row with any woman on the stoop. The women that go there ain't the kind to stand on the stoop and kick."

Deaconess Gardiner is Mrs. J. L. Gardiner and is in charge of the day nursery of the Grace Memorial chapel at 94 Fourth avenue.

"I didn't see this myself," she said, "but a seventeen-year-old servant, who was on her way here, saw it all. In addition to what I reported at police headquarters, this servant, who is perfectly trustworthy, declares that the man induced the woman to have a drink on the stoop, and after the drink he pushed her into the saloon despite her struggles."

Mrs. James G. Gressel, the proprietress of the place, denied that this had happened. Her bartender pointed out in the back room a man and a woman seated at one of the tables and drinking whiskey.

"That's them," said the bartender. "Them's the guys that is makin' all this row. Youse kin talk to them if youse want to."

"No one needs to drag me into this or any other gin-mill," said the woman.

"I didn't have to drag her in here. That's all I know," said the man.

Of course there is no reason to believe they were the couple the maid saw.

Abbey's Salt

THE SALT EXTRACTED FROM THE JUICES OF FRESH FRUITS.

The only saline preparation that does its work thoroughly and effectively with absolutely no unpleasant or reactionary effect. You can take Abbey's Salt just as easily as you would a glass of lemonade. Don't confound it with nauseating doses of other medicines which cause distressing, agonizing, pain. Abbey's Salt is a natural remedy and does its work as nature intended it should be done. If your stomach is out of order, perhaps from excesses in eating or drinking, if your liver isn't working right, if you are bilious, if you have headaches, if you are temporarily bothered with any illness of this character, the regular use of Abbey's Effervescent Salt will put you right. It has done it and is still doing it for hundreds of thousands the world over. It will do it for you!

Dr. J. MacMunn Holly, New York, states: "Your Abbey's Salt has proved a success. I find it particularly useful in Torpidity of the Liver, attended by Constipation. Its other uses are legion."

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

BOONE, IOWA, Dec. 14.
No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.
MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

McElree's Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

PITY AND BEAUTY

The most beautiful thing, in the world, is the baby, all dimples and joy. The most pitiful thing is that same baby, thin and in pain.

The dimples and joy have gone, and left hollows and fear. It is fat that is gone; gone with it, comfort and color and curve; all but pity and love.

The little one gets no fat from her food: has had none for weeks: she is living on what she had stored in that plump little body of hers. She is starving for fat; it is death; be quick!

Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil is the fat she can take. It will save her.

We'll send you a little to try if you like.
SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

NO ONE KNOWS THEM ALL.

Not More Than One-Fifth of the English Words Are Used by Any Writer.

The growth of the English language is so enormous that it would be practically impossible for the most learned man to be acquainted with every word. Intelligent persons, even those engaged in the learned professions, do not make use of more than from 5,000 to 8,000 words all told, although there are properly belonging to our language over 200,000. The famous writer or authority of to-day, whether he uses words to express nice shades of meaning or as technical tools of thought in his own department, must have at his command a vocabulary of from 30,000 to 40,000 words, the latter being the maximum acquired by any man now living. There is a large number of words which until recently have escaped the attention of lexicographers. In the text of the "Encyclopedia Britannica" there are 10,000 words which have never been formally entered and defined in any dictionary. In the Century Dictionary there are 70,000 words found in no other, and it has been said that there is not to-day any man living who is sufficiently learned to write one average page of 7,000 pages of this dictionary. To give some idea of the tremendous growth of the language the words and phrases under the letter A have increased in 50 years from 7,000 to nearly 60,000.

Extent of the Florist Business.
The florist business of the United States is by no means an unimportant industry. It is estimated that the retail value of flowers sold annually is $12,500,000 and of potted plants $10,000,000. There are no less than 10,000 establishments in the United States devoted to the growing of plants under glass.

The manufacture of cast steel in India can be traced back for over 2,000 years, while there are also examples of wrought iron work nearly as old. Near Rehi, close to the Kutub, there is an enormous wrought iron pillar which weighs ten tons and is thought to be over 1,800 years old.

EXORBITANT TIPS.

They Prove a Severe Drain on People of Small Means—System is Altogether Wrong.

The "tipping" question is one to be carefully taken into consideration before ending a round of visits or an itinerary. From time to time discussions have arisen as to the possibility of doing away with the douceur. Some people have steadfastly set their faces against it so far as their own house servants are concerned, but it is obviously impossible to put an end to the practice altogether, because there are some people who would always persist in buying attention and favors, whatever might be the custom, and others who would "tip" from sheer generosity, but we may well pray that some kind of restraint may be laid upon the very rich, who nowadays are so many in number.

The millionaire is no longer a rara avis, and if the very rich set the example of presenting douceurs of such magnitude that the aggregate sum of their tips while visiting here or staying there is duly paraphrased, how many of those of limited income ever hope to win any respect or command any attention? The result of such absolutely indiscreet generosity is to make it almost impossible for those of limited means to go about at all, says the Philadelphia Ledger. How, for example, can women with purses but sparsely lined accept invitations to stay in the same house with the wives and daughters of men who think nothing of giving $5 where the less endowed can give but 50 cents? The system is altogether wrong; and if hostesses allow their servants to receive money from their guests they should take some means of making it known that it will be taken as a personal favor if a certain sum is not exceeded.

EVERY SERVANT IS A SPY.

Diplomatic Secrets Are Impossible in Peking and They May Be Purchased in the Streets.

Every servant in a foreign establishment in Peking is a spy and informer of some degree; espionage is a regular business; and the table talk, visiting list, card-tray and scrap-basket, with full accounts of all comings and goings, sayings and doings of any envoy or foreigner in Peking, are regularly offered for purchase by recognized purveyors of such news. One often catches a glimpse of concentrated attention on the face of the turbaned servants standing behind dining-room chairs that convinces one of this feature of capital life. Diplomatic secrets are fairly impossible in such an atmosphere. Every secret convention and concession is soon emblazoned abroad.

Every word the British minister uttered at the tsung-li-yamen was reported to the Russian legation with almost electric promptness, until the envoy threatened to suspend negotiations and withdraw. Wily concessionaries know each night where their rivals are dining and what they have said; whether any peace of written paper has passed and what has gone on at each legation in Peking and each consulate at Tientsin. Every legation keyhole, crack and chink has its eye and ear at critical times, and by a multiplication in imagination one arrives at an idea of what the palace may be like.

Bovine Sanctity in India.

The sacredness of the cow has been enormously costly in India this famine year. When the rains failed and the pastures dried up, instead of killing and curing the cattle for food, and so helping to tide over the famine time, the cattle starved with their masters.

WILHELM TO HAVE AUTOS.

The German Emperor Is Ordering a General Assortment of Horseless Vehicles.

The Germans were slow in adopting the automobile, but now the emperor has taken it under his protecting wing and it is expected to become the fad in Berlin. A number of persons connected with the Berlin court are trying to do business with it, and there is a good deal of enterprise and readiness to speculate among the courtiers on the Spree. More than a year ago the kaiser's master of the horse inquired of a well-known carriage manufacturer in the capital if he could supply him with motor cars for the conveyance of visitors from the station to his majesty's country seat, at Wildpark, near Potsdam—the new palace. Since then the imperial post office has secured some heavy vans propelled on this principle; and now Kaiser Wilhelm himself is going to try this mode of traveling. In the month of August the kaiser visited the military drill ground at Alten-Grabow, in the province of Saxony, and traveled the distance from Wusterwitz to Ziesar and thence to Nedlitz in a motor car. The carriage-maker above referred to has offered his majesty a present of three of such vehicles, which he has graciously accepted. The roads in the neighborhood were specially put in order for the convenience of the imperial party.

DOG COULDN'T STAND IT.

The Excitement Was Too Much and It Expired While Watching Women in a Fight.

They were only sisters, but the merry way in which they plucked out each other's hair by the roots in the vestibule entrance to a Dearborn avenue apartment house indicated a long-standing mutual hatred, reports the Chicago Chronicle. Several hundred excited spectators gathered from the street and near-by flats, but among them all there was none who evinced any desire to separate the women who were pounding each other and rolling on the floor in a confusion and strenuousness that won the plaudits of the crowd.

"Choke her, Ida," shouted a fat man who sided with the woman that had gained the upper hand and was scratching her opponent's face with fingers that worked like a hay tedder. It was the landlord who rushed into the crowd in a laudable effort to part the combatants. At his heels and as much excited as his master came his pet terrier. Around and around the little dog whirled, barking loudly while the landlord exerted his strength to end the fight. Just as its owner succeeded in his errand of peace the terrier fell over on its side, dead. The excitement had been too much for its weak heart.

Too Ignorant for Kansas.

A Kansas man en route to the Paris exposition declares that the only time he ever really lost his nerve was when the sailors on the ship commenced to load up the lifeboats with water and biscuits. He says that he didn't know that this was done once a week in order to have the boats always in readiness, and felt sure a great storm was coming that would swamp them all. "I was scared and asked the captain about it," he says, "and the captain laughed at me. That made me mad. These captains put on too much dog, anyway. There isn't one of them that could tell the difference between a self-binder and a strawstacker."

Sillicus—"The reason women are talkative is because they tell all they know." Cynicus—"Humph! That wouldn't make some women talkative."

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug

A POWDER MILL EXPLOSION

Removes everything in sight; so do drastic mineral pills, but both are mighty dangerous. Don't dynamite the delicate machinery of your body with calomel, croton oil or aloes pills, when Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are gentle as a summer breeze, do the work perfectly. Cures headache, constipation. Only 25c. at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Feelings of safety pervade the household that uses the One Minute Cough Cure, the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. It is infallible for coughs, colds, croup and all throat and lung troubles. It will prevent consumption. Howard Gardner.

AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

The Columbia Comic Opera Company will sing Audran's famous comic opera The Mascot, at the Academy of Music on Saturday Oct. 27th. This organization comes highly recommended as being all they advertise. The Mascot is one of the funniest operas before the American public and is one that pleases the masses. Mr. Claude Amsden, one of the best comic opera comedians in this country will be Prince Lorenzo. In this character he is unsurpassed as he has the build, voice and humor to correctly portray this laughable part.
